

January 11, 2013

On Friday, January 11th, as we remember our day of fast and prayer, we are invited to “see with the eyes of God and with women’s hearts, the thirst for a deeper communion between believers of all religions.” (Chapter Document, 2007)

Recognizing that all religions sincerely search for God and the common good, we desire to both give and receive life-giving truths. We embrace this dialogue as part of our mission.
(Chapter Document, 2007)

Dialogue as a trait of God is an integral part of the mission of Jesus. Inter-religious dialogue is for us today (Christians, Catholics, Sisters of Christian Charity) perhaps THE adequate way to proclaim with all that we are and do, our belief in the Triune God and at the same time inter-religious dialogue is a common quest that unites the faithful of all religions in our search for deeper unity in our common efforts for justice and peace. (Chapter Document, 2007)

Educational Initiatives

- ✓ Visit an art exhibit or a museum dedicated to other cultures.
- ✓ Invite a family or people in the neighborhood from another culture or religion to share a meal with you and exchange views on life.
- ✓ Rent a movie or read a book from another country or religion than your own.