

April 11, 2013

On Thursday, April 11th, as we remember our day of fast and prayer, we are invited to “see with the eyes of God and with women’s hearts, the thirst for a deeper communion between believers of all religions.” (Chapter Document, 2007)

As Sisters of Christian Charity we strive to live a Eucharistic life-style by which we desire to both give and receive life-giving truths. Therefore we recognize the dignity of all people and know that all religions sincerely search for God and the common good. We embrace this as part of our mission. Both globalization and immigration have expanded ecumenism into the need for inter-religious dialogue. (Chapter Document, 2007)

Conversation Starters

Do I participate in inter-religious experiences, prayers, workshops or conferences when possible? How do I “take up the challenge to foster communion among peoples, cultures and religions?”
