Weaving Acts of Love

Reflection

“By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”
John 13:35

Religious formation today emphasizes the important role of every Sister within the total formative development of the Congregation. Because we live in COMMUNITY, the quality of our life together is also essential to this process. All of us share the responsibility to respect one another’s uniqueness, thereby creating an atmosphere in which mutual acceptance, trust, and unity can grow. We should strive to be instruments of reconciliation and peace, to heal the brokenness which we experience in community living.

THAT ALL MAY BE ONE FORMATION DOCUMENT

Prayer

Father, we are your people, the work of your hands. So precious are we in your sight that you sent your Son, Jesus. He calls us to heal the broken-hearted, to dry the tears of those who mourn, to give hope to those who despair, and to rejoice in your steadfast love. Call forth priests, sisters, brothers and lay ministers to help serve your people. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Extra Step

Sincere love should unite all the Sisters, and each one should seek to please God by conscientiously fulfilling her duties. At the same time, every one should strive to attain a true, sincere humility.

If true humility, sisterly love, and a due fervor in prayer reign, then we might expect God's blessing.
